Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: IS356 Enterprise Information Systems Management

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: IS201

Description: Study concepts, types and important issues in enterprise information systems also includes managing information systems to gain the highest value for the organization. The course will cover the information system planning, information system economics, system control, and resource management.