Course Description – Curriculum 2018

Subject: AC452 Accounting Integration for ERP

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: AC314

Description: Concepts, methods, and principles of prevailing and the future trend of Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) as well as an accounting application in the ERP system. The course also includes selecting ERP software, introducing ERP to an organization, and factors that would affect the success of ERP system in a firm. The course also focuses on applying ERP Software packages from the leaders in ERP application (such as Oracle) in business processes, and also includes a study of sub-systems and how to integrate sub-systems into ERP.