

Course Description – Curriculum 2018

Subject: RB212 Introduction to Real Estate Valuation

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: -

Description: Principles on real estate valuation process and methodologies that are suitable for all valuation purposes such as market value for market transaction purposes and for financial loan collateral, forced sales, compulsory acquisition or other special purposes. Title deed, construction, law and regulations or any other related factors analysis to real estate value are also included in the subject.